For Appellate Judge—2nd District,
JUDGE R. L. DUFFY,
Of Morgantown.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge—3

We are authorized to announce W. T. OWEN, of Daviess county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

If we were ready to suspend publication we should like to have two candidates for some important office and rob the other fellow of about $30 a week.

With its "customary love of fair play" the Hartford Herald, this week, charges Gabe Likens, a fellow Democrat, $28.10 for the privilege of defending a Democratic candidate in the columns of that paper.

The Hartford Herald says: "We are not setting ourselves up to defend Mr. Cleveland's administration." Be dad! neighbor we don't blame you, but it's the only administration you've had for more than a generation.

If the Herald isn't yarning—as most folks believe it is—about charging Lavega Clements, Mr. Birkhead's law partner, 10 cents a line for his letter, that paper is playing party organ this week to the tune of $46.40.

If we were devoting a column each week to the interest of one Republican candidate and charging his opponent 10 cents a line, we should expect an outraged party to withhold, and justly so, their support from our paper.

The Rev. Lloyd, of Louisville, who was, in a way, instrumental in having the Corbett-McGovern prize fight declared off in Louisville, is now asking for an injunction to prevent the country here from laying eggs on Sunday. A little bit of success sometimes drives well-meaning enthusiasts to madness.

"The second chapter of Mr. Likens' continued story appears in the Herald to-day," is the sarcastic comment of the Hartford Herald upon the defense of a fellow Democrat by a fellow Democrat in an article for which the fellow Democrat is paying the Herald the robbery rate—length of article considered—of 10 cents a line.

In a letter to the Hartford Herald Mr. Lavega Clements, Mr. Birkhead's law partner, refers the Democrats of Ohio county to five Owensboro lawyers for a certificate of Mr. Birkhead's ability to discharge the office of Circuit Judge. There are about forty lawyers in Owensboro, why did not Mr. Clements name more of them?

The nomination of Hon. R. W. Slack in the Second district for Congress, means that there is going to be a fight in this hitherto Democratic stronghold. Bob was a member of the Legislature during those stormy contest days at Frankfort, and he will tell the Democrats of the second district some embarrassing facts before the race is closed.

The Morgantown Republican, speaking of the great political contest of the W. S. Taylor regime, says:

"If the rest of the Republicans elected with Mr. Pratt could have seen ahead and disowned their pet politician as did Mr. Pratt, they would have all been in office today."

Perhaps this is true. Perhaps the "rest of the Republicans" who were on the ticket with Mr. Pratt, if they had added BY THE LAW, AS DID THE LATTER, might ALSO HAVE ENJOYED OFFICIAL PRIVILEGES—Hartford Herald.

Neighbor, this confession comes a little late, but we feel it our duty to compliment you for making it.

The merry condition of Hartford's streets this early in the season makes doubly apparent the necessity for their improvement. There is not another town in Western Kentucky with the wealth and population of Hartford that has not some system of street building that gives the people solid streets the year around. The business buildings in Hartford are far in advance of other Kentucky towns of its size, and there is no good reason why our streets should not be ballasted. There is an abundance of ballasting stone within easy reach of town. There can be no doubt that if our streets were nicely ballasted and the remainder of our side walks laid in concrete, it would so much improve the attractiveness of the town that it would bring us a much larger volume of business from the country. Our business men should urge street improvement, from selfish motives, if they feel no local pride in building up the town. It is a favorable time to undertake this work now while the saloons are pouring $2,000 a year into the city treasury.

Keep Out of Politics, Young Men.

Circuit Clerk J. C. Bolling will not be a candidate for re-election. He has made a splendid clerk but says that in that particular office one can not live on honor and that's about all there is in it. However, the public need not fear that the office will go without an applicant. Many poor, deluded fellows who were doing well have been lured into the supposed ease and profit of office holding, only to wake up some sweet day with their reputation battered and their credit and self-respect gone.—Hancock Clarion.

Eloped to Rockport.

Miss Ora C. Miller, of Dundee, and Mr. Ira Moseley, of West View, Ky., passed through the city this morning en route for Rockport, where they went to get married.

They were accompanied by Misses Mary Miller and Verna Williams, and Messrs. R. B. Acton and Ronda Miller.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Read This.

The marble monument salesmen are circulating the report that the large White Bronze Monument to the grave of C. D. Jackson, Sr., Elmwood Cemetery, Owensboro, was falling to pieces and had to be fastened together with iron bolts. Read this letter from Dr. J. H. Hickman:

"Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 20, 1902.—Mr. D. J. Rhoads, Agent, Beaver Dam, Ky. Dear Sir: Replying to your favor of the 20th inst., I beg leave to state that the Bronze Monument erected over the grave of C. D. Jackson, Sr., in 1884, is in a perfect state of preservation. There is not the slightest evidence of wear or decay. There has never been any work done on it directly or indirectly since it was put up, and I believe it will stand for a hundred years, if not longer. In my opinion it is more durable than marble or granite, and will not change its color.

Yours truly,
"Dr. J. H. HICKMAN."

I set up three White Bronze Monuments in the last two weeks and took orders for three Bronze Monuments and seven grave covers, large size. Bronze is coming to the front where it belongs.

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt's Western trip came to an untimely end in this city today. He was found to be suffering from a swelling in the left leg between the knee and the ankle that required immediate surgical attention, and instead of being taken to the train to continue his journey to Fort Wayne and Milwaukee, he was conveyed to St. Vincent's Hospital, where he was operated on. The operation occurred at 3:35 o'clock, and lasted only a short time, when he was taken to a private room in the hospital to rest. After taking a light luncheon at 7:30 p. m., he was conveyed on a stretcher to his train, which had been backed up on the "V" near the hospital, and at ten minutes to 8 o'clock the train left for Washington.

JOKES WITH SURGEONS.

The President was told to remove his shoes and stockings and nether garments. He also removed his coat and vest. A moment later, however, he was told to simply remove his shoes and they would be required to bare the leg only. This was done. The President walked to the operating table alone, and as he lay down he remarked with a smile:

"Gentlemen, you are formal. I see you have your gloves on." This was a reference to the antiseptic gloves of the surgeons.

"Mr. President," said a surgeon with a smile, "it is always in order to wear gloves at a President's reception."

This caused the President to exclaim: "Good; well said."

The operation began without delay. The pain caused the President to utter several times in a low voice, but he said nothing that was distinct except to ask for a glass of water before the needle had been removed.

After the operation was over he made several laughable remarks concerning trivial matters, and asked if would be allowed to use his leg long enough to walk upstairs himself.

"You will be hauled upstairs in a wheeled ambulance," said a surgeon.

WESTERN TOUR CUT SHORT.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt's train arrived here at 9:45 p. m. The President was resting easily, and the wound on his leg showed no ill effects from the short trip from the hospital to the train at Indianapolis. On the contrary, the President suffered less pain than he has for several days. He passed the time during the run here in reading. He is cheerful and is lying in bed with his leg propped up on a pillow. The train will run on a slow schedule, making about thirty miles an hour, and is due to arrive in Washington at 6:30 o'clock to-morrow evening. He will be taken to 22 Jackson Place, where the temporary executive offices are located.

It was learned to-night that the determination to abandon the trip was reached yesterday and notices to this effect were sent out last night from Detroit and to-day from Indianapolis to those interested in the places the President was to visit. No inkling of this decision was made known to the members of the President's party on the train outside of his physicians and secretaries until Secretary Cortelyou issued his own announcement. The President did not speak to Dr. Lang, his official physician, of the pain in his leg until a few days ago. Yesterday the pain became so intense that it was decided to take no further risks by continuing the trip. The President regrets exceedingly that he has been compelled to abandon his trip. He has received a large number of telegrams of condolence.

Water Cure for Chronic Constipation.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take 1 1/2 of outdoor exercise—walk, ride, drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

May Go to Rough River.

It is reported at Evansville that the White Dove will enter the Rough river trade between that point and Hartford. The White Dove left here two weeks ago, and nothing has been heard from it directly. The Little Ben came down from Louisville a week ago and made a contract to enter the Hartford trade. If she runs there is not room enough in Rough river for both boats, one having found it impossible to live there heretofore.—Owensboro Inquirer.

For a bad taste in the mouth take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

Emancipation Day.

The colored people, of Ohio county, celebrated the 38th anniversary of the Proclamation of the Emancipation of the colored race in the United States here, Monday.

A great number of the colored people were out to do honor to the anniversary of that day that must ever be a hallowed one to the colored race of this country.

For two centuries and a half the Negro smarted under the sting of the lash of his white master, and it is little wonder that they now, especially the older ones, who have felt that sting, should turn out to celebrate the anniversary of the day upon which the cruel shackles fell from their wrists.

In the celebration here Monday the colored people formed a procession at Hayti and paraded the principal streets of the town, after which they repaired to the McHenry Grove and spent a pleasant day.

A number of colored and white orators recounted the thrilling experiences of slave days and the subsequent era of freedom to the enthusiastic throng.

We stood on the street and watched with interest the procession of exemplifying the progress of a race in a little more than a third of a century. The silvered heads and bent backs of the older colored folks, brought up historic memories of the long ago, when wife, husband or child was put upon the block and sold, and separated from those they loved. Thank God those cruel days are over, and now all men are men.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

Illinois Man Abducts His Child and Kills It and Himself.

Springfield, Ills., Sept. 22.—Harry O. Williams, agent for the Franklin Life Insurance Company, Saturday abducted his two-year-old son Glen from his mother at Auburn, Ills. and then when pursued by officers, got out of his buggy and placed the child in the road and blew out its brains, and then blew out his own.

Saturday afternoon Williams appeared at the Harney residence and asked his wife to take the child and go with him. She refused and he threatened his wife's life. He then seized the child. Miss Lena Harney, his sister-in-law, caught the horses' reins and tried to prevent his leaving, but he struck her with the whip, and as she still persisted he drew a revolver and compelled her to let go the reins. He then drove away toward Loomis. Officers were called, and when Williams saw them approaching he shot the child and himself.

Williams was short in his accounts with the insurance company and had frequently quarreled with his wife.

Does Advertising Pay? A department store in New York announced in the newspapers of the city last month that it would give a stick pin with the class number on it to the children in every grade in the public schools if each child would mail a postal card asking for it. A hundred and sixty-five thousand postal cards were received in response to their advertisement, which seems to indicate, among other things, that when something is offered for nothing there is no lack of people ready to accept it. Incidentally, also, it seems to suggest that advertisements are read and that in turn suggests that advertising pays.—Youth's Companion.

EXCITING CHASE.

Marshal Maury Hot-Foots Clarence Allen Out of Town.

Tuesday Clarence Allen, a young man living four miles north of town, came to Hartford and tanked up pretty freely and proceeded to demonstrate, on the streets, the fleetness of his horse.

Wednesday young Allen came into town again and when the marshal saw him an exciting chase ensued. Allen started up Center street at a pretty lively gate and the Marshal called to Clarence Morrison, a former town marshal, to follow him while he ran back to Union street to head off Allen in the alley in the rear of Lee Chinn's saloon. When the Marshal turned up the alley from Union street Allen was just turning into it from Center street. When Allen saw the Marshal coming up the alley, he wheeled about and ran out Center street toward the tobacco factory. The Marshal drew his pistol and fired, the only effect of which was to increase Allen's running gait.

The young man succeeded in reaching the residence of the family of a relative in town, and out of respect for the family where he was hiding, the Marshal declined to search the house, but says he will take care of him the next time he comes to town.

AN ADVANTAGE OF COMBINATION.

One of the reasons why American manufacturers are finding a ready market abroad is that we not only have the ability to do things well, but also to do them quickly. When the British Government wanted a most important steel railway bridge built in India, none of the bridge builders in Europe would undertake to complete it within the time limit given, but an American bridge building corporation took the contract and did complete it by the time required. This corporation was able to do the work because it represented the consolidation of a dozen small plants working on different parts of bridge building. This advantage enabled the corporation to manufacture and assemble all the parts of the structure under one general contract and do all work within the time limit.

This is an illustration of modern business methods. It is a natural development, and to attempt to destroy the trusts by free trade would destroy not only the best combinations, but the individual manufacturers who are engaged in the same line of business. The Republicans have a better plan. It is to control and regulate the trusts, not to destroy them, for they simply represent the modern method of business combination and co-operation.

When your Democratic friend suggests free trade to kill the trusts, tell him that you do not want to burn down the barn to get rid of the fleas. Then remind him of a few facts and ask him to chew them over; first, that the only law on the statute books to regulate the trusts was passed by a Republican Congress; second, that this law was in force during a Democratic administration and that not a finger was lifted by the Democratic Attorney-General to use it against the trusts; third, that a Republican administration is using the law and is now proceeding against the beef trust and the Northern Securities merger. Finally, ask your Democratic friend if common sense does not dictate that the Republicans have done, can do and will do more to regulate the trusts than the Democrats.

There is one thing the American people cannot stand for and that is a "quitter." They do not like a man who will give up in the face of difficulties, without trying to overcome them, or who runs away from a job because it is hard. The genius of the American people is to "do things," to "deliver the goods" when they have undertaken a contract. This is what Senator Foraker, of Ohio, probably had in mind, although he expressed it in polished language when he uttered his famous sentence in the Philippines debate in the Senate last winter:

"We will not come away from the Philippines because we cannot come away unless we write dishonor and poltroonery across the forehead of the American people; and no administration will do that or be allowed to do it by the American people."

A few Democratic politicians in the Senate and House want to quit the Philippines, but the great mass of Democrats throughout the country, representing the good, husky American spirit, will not follow their lead.

It is the fashion of certain Democratic politicians to claim that the United States is now maintaining a Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to urinate; your linen if it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also evidence that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kimer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or had effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery free of charge, and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kimer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Neo-like tyranny in the Philippines. Aside from the consideration that the "United States" means the people of this country, who are not tyrants, not Nero, but a pretty good lot of fellows, there is the fact the American Congress bestowed a "bill of rights" on the Philippines. That bill of rights is a guarantee of justice for every dweller in the islands. It proves that no man shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law; that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall be the same as in this country, and as every man knows the writ of habeas corpus is one of the greatest guarantors of personal justice; that bail shall be allowed; that accused persons shall have right of counsel, a speedy trial, the compulsory attendance of witnesses in his behalf, shall not be put twice in jeopardy for the same offense, and so on, through a long list of benefits and immunities. The Philippines have never dreamed of such a measure of liberty. It is certain they would not have received it if the Democratic program of scuttling had been adopted and Aguinaldo permitted to establish his despotism in the islands.

In 1896 the country showed the Democratic party that the people would not stand for free silver. The Democrats bobbed up again with it in 1898, together with trade and got wallowed once more. In 1900 they came up again with free silver and the free trade and run away from the Philippines and got wallowed again. Here they are back, once more, doing business at the old stand on old issues—free trade, free silver, and scuttling in the Orient—and they will get wallowed again. They never learn anything.

Like the indignant father who takes his boy behind the woodshed for a little fatherly correction, Uncle Sam has to pause about once in every two years and take the Democratic party out to give it a hiding. The licking will come off this year about November 4.

The Democratic plans and policies for running this great big government of ours, for strange combination of our, for unreasonableness and impracticability.

Ramon's Tonic Liver Pills have no equal as a liver medicine. Try them for any chronic case of disordered liver and you will be entirely satisfied with the result. Just one before retiring.

Next Morning Philosopher. Hypochondriacs are largely, if not entirely, self made. Life in the country is a dream—to those who live elsewhere. The vain man is not necessarily foolish, but in most cases the foolish man is vain. You cannot command confidence and respect by trampling upon the rights and privileges of others.

The city man never learns that farming is something of a science until he tries to plow a straight furrow across a forty acre lot. It is a waste of time trying to settle the question as to who is the greatest living man, since it is not yet determined who was the greatest dead one. There is the same reason for the employee to be just to the employer as for the employer to be just to him. But this principle is too often ignored on one side or the other, if not on both.—Enquirer.

A Kansas Democratic Platform. The Democrats of Miami county, Kan., have adopted a platform which is a model of frankness and brevity. Nothing is said about sixteen to one, or the trusts, or imperialism, or the robber tariff, or the consent of the governed, or "pointing with pride," or "viewing with alarm," or any kind or sort of principles, Jeffersonian or otherwise. The platform in full reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the Republican party should be defeated in the State and the county and the rascals turned out of office." It is not stated what the "rascals" should be turned out, but that, of course, is understood. It is in order that Democratic rascals may get in. Not often does the "appetite" party speak with such honesty and candor. Kansas has furnished a model of sincerity which the Democracy in other parts of the country will doubtless admire sincerely.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS

Some of the finest Japanese paintings in Washington are in the master building of that nation, the Japanese ambassador being a collector and connoisseur of the art of his native land.

The Japanese style of painting is altogether unlike that of Europe and America, and the reason Japanese painters are able to produce color effects that are the despair of European and American artists is owing to the pigments they use, a large number of which are secret and unknown outside of Japan.

In Japan there is a very famous painting which no amount of money could buy and which is the masterpiece of a famous artist who lived several centuries ago. Viewing the painting in the daytime, one is disappointed. It shows nothing more than a very commonplace landscape, unrelieved by mountains or hills. As soon, however, as night falls one begins to realize the peculiar merit of the picture, for upon the canvas there appears a luminous water buffalo (caribou) browsing upon the grass at its feet.

The artist who painted this picture discovered a certain phosphorescent paint, which he obtained from the bodies of certain mollusks, or fish, and with which he painted the buffalo, that, invisible in daylight, is luminously brilliant in the dark. The secret of making this paint died with the artist. The picture, which hangs in a Buddhist temple, has proved a fertile source of superstition, the priests claiming that the buffalo hides away in the shade behind some tree in the picture during the heat of the day, coming out at night to graze.—Washington Post.

Fish That Kill Each Other. One of the queerest sharks is the thresher, which has the upper lobe of its tail so much developed as to equal in length the body of the fish itself. This tail is controlled by powerful muscles and is used as a weapon. Swordfish and thresher sharks have been seen on many occasions to attack whales in concert and kill them, the sharks lashing their victims with their tails while the swordfish pierce them from below. On the other hand, sharks themselves are often killed by porpoises, which will surround a shark and lash the enemy to death with their flukes.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad follows the Potomac river for nearly one Hundred & Fifty Miles.

The Potomac river, ideally linked with the fortunes of War.

"All quiet along the Potomac to-night. Except now and then a stray picket is shot, as he walks on his beat to and fro, by a villainous bird in the thicket."

But was not always quiet along the Potomac. For four long weary years the valley through which the river winds, and which now is a dream of peace and prosperity, was hotly contested ground for the great armies of the North and South.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad follows the famous stream for nearly one hundred and fifty miles—from Piedmont, W. Va., to Washington Junction, Maryland—and both river and railroad were crossed and recrossed time and again, by the contending armies. The battles of Antietam, South Mountain, Monocacy and Gettysburg were all fought north of the main line of the B. & O. Harper's Ferry, picturesque and beautiful, lies on the sharp northeastern point of West Virginia, whose rock bound sides glide the gentle Shenandoah to its confluence with the Potomac.

Artistic Monuments

COST NO MORE THAN PLAIN ONES IN White Bronze.

Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. Besides, it is very expensive. White Bronze is strictly everlasting. It cannot crumble with the action of frost. Moss growth is an impossibility. It is more artistic than any stone. Then why not investigate? It has been adopted for nearly one hundred public monuments and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. We have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them if you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave-cover. On receipt of a postal card will be pleased to call with designs and sample of White Bronze.

Yours truly, D. J. RHOADS, Beaver Dam, Ky.

Agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., of Bridgeport, Conn.
